"What's all this fuss about? This frantic rushing up and down? Oh, haven't you heard the news, my dear? Everybody is wild with fear. For old Colonel Camera has come to take the town."

Right and left the people were running: You could hear the fat one pant and strive: And a bride and groom were shouting madly, "Don't try to hide, or to run, or to fight. But when the saw how she was taken, She sat her down, and she wept and mourned."

The valiant few who remained bold: As a matter of course were taken first: Don't try to hide, or to run, or to fight. But when the saw how she was taken, She sat her down, and she wept and mourned.

Not one escaped from the doughty Colonel: He nobody spared, or great or small: Their fight and struggles were worse than useless. For at last they were taken, one and all.

So, if you should meet this conquering hero, And the non-committal, who looked on coldly As they deserved, were taken worst.

Not one escaped from the doughty Colonel: He nobody spared, or great or small: Their fight and struggles were worse than useless. For at last they were taken, one and all.

Madison Female Institute.

BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES

Thirty-sixth year opens September 11th under the management of Mrs. A. B. Bourne and Miss Alice Lloyd, late of Hamilton College, Lexington, Ky. Buildings commodious; hot and cold baths and closets; recreation-rooms large, entirely above ground, well lighted and ventilated. Grounds consist of fourteen acres, affording ample space for tennis court and other outdoor amusements, commanding a beautiful view of the city of Lexington, Ky. The school is situated within a few minutes walk of the business portion, thus combining the advantages of a city with the retirement of a country seat. Mrs. Bourne and Miss Lloyd will be supported by an able corps of teachers, graduates of our best colleges and universities. Music, French, German, complete, of acknowledged ability. Boarding department limited to thirty boarders, thus affording opportunity for social intercourse between faculty and students in sitting-room and parlors, impossible in large boarding schools. For catalogues and all information concerning the school address:

TESTIMONIALS.

It gives me pleasure to say that I am well acquainted with the character and work of Mrs. A. B. Bourne and Miss Alice Lloyd, and that I think the Madison Female Institute very fortunate in securing their services in its management. They are both ladies of culture, executive ability and of skill in the art of teaching. No parent in Kentucky or elsewhere need hesitate to place daughters under their care or instruction.

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 15th, 1904.

To whom it may concern: Having learned that my friends Mrs. Anna B. Bourne and Miss Alice Lloyd have engaged to take charge of the Madison Female Institute, I give my pleasure to say that they are in my opinion in every way qualified for the responsible position. These ladies have had the benefit of the best methods of teaching in some of the most celebrated seminaries in the land. This combined with rare ability and some ten or twelve years experience in the art of teaching, makes them well qualified for the undertaking. Mrs. Bourne and Miss Lloyd will be aided by a corps of able teachers; and from my knowledge of their ability, energy and character, I am sure they will do good service in the cause of Christian education. In this expectation I commend them to the sympathetic and the patronage of the public.

THOMAS W. MEANS'S FORTUNE.

Suit Against the Estate Now On Trial at Louisville.

The suit of H. B. Cowan and others against the Means estate is on trial before Judge Barr at Louisville.

The points raised in this case have been published heretofore in THE LEADER.

It is a suit over the will of Thomas W. Means of Ashland, who was one of the wealthiest men in Eastern Kentucky, and has been in the courts for several years. William Means, a son, was President of the Metropolitan National Bank in Cincinnati, about the failure of which in 1888 so much was written.

John Means, a brother of William Means, advanced a sum, said to have been about $800,000, to save his brother from a criminal prosecution.

This was before the death of the father, Thomas W. Means.

Now the fight hinges chiefly on whether William Means is to be charged with the amount advanced by John Means, who was managing the estate of Thomas W. Means.

The suit belonged properly to the Covington docket and before Judge Taft, but Judge Barr consented to sit in the case. The counsel appearing for the plaintiffs are ex-Congressman John Little of Hamilton, O., J. J. Gidden, Cincinnati, and Judge H. P. Whitaker of Covington, Ky. For defendants—United States Solicitor General L. Maxwell, Jr., Washington; John F. Hager of Ashland, and William Anderson, Ironton, O.

All six will speak, and Judge Barr decided to allow each side six hours for argument.

When you need pure fresh spices call at Chenoweth's Drugstore.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn administered it to her own offspring and always with the best results. For sale by Theo. C. Power, Drugist.

THE LEDGER.

It is the largest daily paper printed in Maryland—east the columns and measure their length. It gives you more reading matter than any other. It is sold at the same price as any other Maryland paper—five cents a copy or 25 cents a month, delivered by mail. If you are looking for the most for your money, you can get it in THE LEDGER.

Now is the time to subscribe—suppose you give it a month's trial.

A Good Thing to Keep at Hand.

Some years ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera morbus; and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually precede that ailment, such as sickness at the stomach, diarrhoea, etc., we become scarce. We have found Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the very thing to straighten one out in such cases, and always keep it about.

We are not writing this for a pay testimonial, but to let our readers know what is a good thing to keep handy in the house. For sale by Theo. C. Power, Drugist.

If you want to make a substantial gift to some relative or friend who has moved away from this section, send them THE MAYVILLE REPUBLICAN. Price $1.50 per year.

On account of the Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias at Paulsboro, September 16th, the C. and O. will sell round trip tickets to Paulsboro at $11.85. Tickets on sale September 16th, 17th and 18th, return limit September 23rd.

Low prices that are unprecedented. This can be truly said of the low prices advanced by Chamberlain's Pain Balm and stock or ladies' and gentlemen's gold and silver watches. Murphy, the Jeweler, is and has always been the leader of low prices, without sacrificing quality. Successor to Hopper & Murphy.

For a lame back or for a pain in the side or chest, try saturating a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and binding it onto the affected parts. This treatment will cure any ordinary case in one or two days. Pain Balm also cures Rheumatism. Fifty cent bottles for sale by Theo. C. Power, Drugist.
